The following was written by Sophia's mother:

"Mother's Day gratitude along with the process of growing with your children is also a process of self-growth. We must practice it together - love is patience and kindness always. Love is without jealousy. Love is not boastful or insolent or shy. Love is to not seek selfish advantages. Love is without anger. Love is without the evil of man. It is just like the truth. Everything is inclusive. Believe in everything. Look forward and do so with patience."

母亲节快乐，妈妈！这几年来，您辛苦了。今天，我虽然告诉您我没有给您准备什么，我和陈爽其实是去给你们买东西的。我给您买了一个袋子，袋子里面有洗化妆品的水，沐浴露，护手霜，面膜，还有一个很好的擦身上的护肤品。都是玫瑰香味的，因为我记得你和我说过你喜欢玫瑰味。我也把我的房间，我的厕所，我的书房，和你房间的床旁边都收拾了一下，因为我知道你多么不喜欢我乱糟糟。我也知道我这几年来给你带来了很多麻烦的地方，但是我希望你知道我非常爱你。我也能感觉到做妈妈是多么的不容易。今天是母亲节，是专门为你们这些无私，千辛万苦也不怕累的女人制造的。我希望你不只是今天，永远都开开心心的！

你的女儿，
瓷姑

【MEMORIAL DAY】 OUR SCHOOL WAS INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN A MARCH IN WASHINGTON D.C.

We invited middle school and high school volunteers to attend the Spirit of '45 March of Heroes. This parade is the nation's largest national anniversary celebration. The march commemorates the Americans who sacrificed themselves during World War II. They are represented by the "Wall of Gold Stars" at the National World War II Memorial Hall. This year's exhibits include the Flying Tigers, the Doolittle Raiders, and others who lost their lives during World War II to protect the Chinese from external oppression. The exhibit also includes Chinese Americans who served China, such as Lieutenant B.R. Kim and Lieutenant Li Yueying. The volunteers will meet at 12 o'clock in front of the Newseum (550 Pennsylvania Avenue), where they will receive their photos and be notified of the day's events. After that they will line up for the parade. Parade routes on Constitution Avenue, from 7th Street to 17th Street. The team will continue to the Second World War Memorial. They will place red, white, and blue flowers in the large wreath, and "Taps" will take play around 4:30 pm. Schools, Girl and Boy Scouts, and other groups can participate in this year's "Memorial Day" activities. Those interested can register on the "45 Memorial Day" website.

The plan is to raise public awareness on the special relationship between China and the United States during World War II, especially between the youth and the educators of the two countries. 【A special thanks to volunteer Xiwei Peng】

【WEEKLY STAR】

Self-Introduction:

Hello everyone! My name is 黄灵儿 and my English name is Amelia Bielski. I am six years old and I go to the Mother of God Elementary School. My sister and I attend the Venus school to learn Chinese. I really like my Chinese school and learning Chinese, because I like to go to China. China has a lot of fun places and delicious things. I can learn a lot of Chinese characters. I would like to manage 400 hotels in the United States and China, so that my father and mother, grandparents, and my friends can travel around. I also like to play the violin and drawing. My violin teacher always told me "Love the beauty of every note!" So the music and painting has taught me to see a lot of beautiful things and how to let myself be happy! I also like the Chinese school painting teacher. He told us to draw some common objects and he taught us to find the beauty in everyday things. My Mom and Dad sometimes ask me who I love. I always say I love God! Religion is my favorite class in school. I go home every day to kneel in front of the angel sculpture before the prayer, and I also go to church with my sister every week to sing. This year I was very happy in the Chinese school. I am looking forward to next semester and continuing to learn Chinese!

Summary of Interview:

This week's Weekly Star interview is with Amelia Bielski. She is 6 years old, and goes to Mother of God School. Her favorite subject there is Religion. She is a first grader at Venus Chinese School. She has an 8 year old sister named Claire, who also goes to this school. Her favorite food is pizza. She dreams of being a hotel owner, so she can make sure that her entire family and all of her friends have a place to stay. How thoughtful! 【Selena Xiao】
